

Natural hazards, fragile environments, and human communities meet

On the Shores of Paradise (UH Press)

Charles Fletcher fletcher@soest.hawaii.edu

Robynne Boyd hiawyn@yahoo.com, Rikki Grober-Dunsmore rikki.dunsmore@noaa.gov

William J. Neal nealw@gvsu.edu, Virginia Tice virginia.tice@gmail.com

Chapter 1 – O ka makapo wale no ka mea hapapa i ka pouli “If you're going nowhere, you're guaranteed to get there” Management of our shores	7
Chapter 2 – He ali 'i nō ka 'āina, ke kauwā wale ke kanaka “The land is the chief, the people merely servants” History of the land	9
Chapter 3 – Kukulu-o-ka-honua - “Pillars of Earth” Volcanism among the islands	13
Chapter 4 – Nei ka honua, he ola 'i ia - “When Earth trembles it is an earthquake” Earthquakes and tsunamis	18
Chapter 5 – Hahai no ka ua i ka ulula'au - “The rain follows after the forest” Climate and water resources	22
Chapter 6 – 'Awiwi!Awiwi! O pea o 'e I ka wai! - “Quick, quick or the waters will stop you” Flooding and mass wasting	20
Chapter 7 – O Ka mea ukuhi ka I ike I ka lepo o ka wasi; o ka mea inu 'a'ole 'oia I 'ike “He who dips knows how dirty the water is, but he who drinks does not. He who does the work knows what trouble it takes, he who receives it does not.” Sewage treatment and polluted runoff	26
Chapter 8 – Malama o kekai, kekai o ke malama “Take care of the ocean and the ocean will take care of you” Climate Change and Sea-Level Rise	22
Chapter 9 – Coastal Erosion and Beach Loss	20
Chapter 10 - Hanau ka 'Uku-ko 'ako 'a, hanu kana, he 'Ako 'ako 'a, puka “Born was the coral polyp, born was the coral, came forth” Reefs and overfishing	30

Chapter 11 – Hurricanes 20

Chapter 12 - 'Ua Mau Ke Ea O Ka 'Āina I Ka Pono
“The life of the land is perpetuated in righteousness”
Summary..... 8