GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP APPLICATION

To qualify for an appointment as a graduate assistant, you must have a satisfactory scholastic record, an adequate undergraduate background in your major field and, in the case of foreign students, evidence of a high level of English proficiency. All applicants for graduate assistantships must be admitted as potential graduate degree candidates in order to be considered for appointments. Appointees must carry at least 6 units of credit each semester and maintain at least a B (3.0) average.

Submit this application to the department at 1000 Pope Road, Honolulu, Hawaii 96822, no later than January 15 for the fall semester or September 1 for the spring semester. International applications are due January 15 and August 1 respectively.

The members of the Council of Graduate Schools in the United States have joined in approving the following resolution:

“Acceptance of an offer of financial aid (such as graduate scholarship, fellowship, traineeship, or assistantship) for the next academic year by an actual or prospective graduate student completes an agreement which both student and graduate school expect to honor. In those instances in which the student accepts the offer before April 15 and subsequently desires to withdraw, the student may submit in writing a resignation of the appointment at any time through April 15. However, an acceptance given or left in force after April 15 commits the student not to accept another offer without first obtaining a written release from the institution to which a commitment has been made. Similarly, an offer by an institution after April 15 is conditional on presentation by the student of the written release from any previously accepted offer.”
