GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP APPLICATION (Optional)

To qualify for an appointment as a graduate assistant, you must have a satisfactory record, an adequate undergraduate background in your major field and, in the case of foreign students, evidence of a high level of English proficiency. All applicants for graduate assistantships must be admitted as potential graduate degree candidates in order to be considered for appointments. Appointees must carry at least 6 credit hours each semester and maintain at least a B (3.0) average.

Name

List and describe any special skills you have and/or research/teaching you have done that would be appropriate for a research and/or teaching assistantship.

Would you join the ORE graduate program even if you do not receive an assistantship? Yes No

For applicants who are not U.S. citizens and answered "Yes", please be advised that in order to be admitted, you are required to give the Office of Graduate Education information about your financial ability to study at the University of Hawai'i.

The members of the Council of Graduate Schools in the United States have joined in approving:
"Acceptance of an offer of financial aid (such as graduate scholarship, fellowship, traineeship, or assistantship) for the next academic year by an actual or prospective graduate student completes an agreement which both student and graduate school expect to honor. In those instances in which the student accepts the offer before April 15 and subsequently desires to withdraw, the student may submit in writing a resignation of the appointment at any time through April 15. However, an acceptance given or left in force after April 15 commits the student not to accept another offer without first obtaining a written release from the institution to which a commitment has been made. Similarly, an offer by an institution after April 15 is conditional on presentation by the student of the written release from any previously accepted offer."
