
Second Announcement
Call for Papers

Symposium on Tagging and Tracking Marine Fish with Electronic Devices

February 7-11, 2000
East-West Center
Honolulu

Marine fishes are tagged and tracked with a suite of different electronic devices of varying degrees of sophistication. In the past 5 years, these devices have yielded an impressive amount of information. This symposium will review this information and identify future research challenges. For further information please refer to www.soest.hawaii.edu/PFRP/

Preliminary Program

Results to date
- Tracking with acoustic tags
- Automated monitors
- Geo-locating archival tags
- Pop-off devices
- "Cross-over" studies

Unresolved problems
- Remote recovery of data
- Geolocation algorithms
- Data management and GIS
- Integration of results
- Fish mortality vs. tag mortality

Future developments
- Applications from other fields
- New sensors
- Fish tracking data archive

Applications to fishery management
- Including behavior in stock assessment

Publications

Arrangements will be made to publish the proceedings in a special issue of a fisheries journal. Abstracts will be circulated at the Symposium. Please send abstracts to John Sibert by December 3, 1999.

Trade show

Space will be made available to manufacturers of electronic devices to exhibit their latest products. Interested exhibitors should contact John Sibert for details.

Local Arrangements

A block of rooms has been reserved at a very special reduced rate for symposium participants at the Waikiki Terrace Hotel (Tel: 808-955-6000; Fax: 808-943-8555; www.castle-group.com). The Waikiki Terrace is located near the west (Ewa) entrance to Waikiki near Fort DeRussy Park and some of Honolulu's nicer restaurants. For further information please contact John Sibert or Dodie Lau:

Pelagic Fisheries Research Program
University of Hawaii, JIMAR
1000 Pope Rd.
Honolulu, HI 96822
United States

Fax: 808-956-4104
email: dlau@soest.hawaii.edu
jsibert@soest.hawaii.edu

Organizing Committee:

John Sibert (Chair), University of Hawaii, Honolulu

Geoff Arnold, CEFAS, Lowestoft

Richard Brill, National Marine Fisheries Service, Honolulu

Laurent Dagorn, IRD, Montpellier

John Gunn, CSIRO, Hobart

Kim Holland, University of Hawaii, Honolulu

Molly Lutcavage, New England Aquarium, Boston

Registration

Symposium participants who register prior to December 3, 1999 will be charged a registration fee of US$50.00. Late registration will be accommodated if space is available; fee for late registration is US$75.00.

Please complete the following form and return it with your registration fee to Dodie Lau at the above address. Checks should be payable to "RCUH" and drawn on a US bank in US$.

Name: _____

Address: _____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Email: _____

I will be making a presentation:

No ____

Yes ____

Title: _____

_____

_____

_____

Audiovisual equipment required:

_____